MEDICINAL.

The reason—beauty of form and face, as well as grace, radiate from the common center—health. The best bodily condition results from good food, fresh air, and exercise, coupled with the judicious use of the "Prescription." In maidenbood, womanhood, and motherhood, it's a supporting tonic that's peculiarly adapted to her needs, regulating, strengthening, and curing, the derangements of the sex. If there be headache, pain in the back, bearing-down sensations, or general debility, or if there be nervous disturbances, nervous prestration, and sleeplessness, the "Prescription" reaches the origin of the trouble and corrects it. It dispels aches and pains, corrects displacements and cures catarrial inflammation of the lining membranes. It's guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money went for it is refunded.

The criminal docket was continued until the 20th, at the Attorney-General's request. A GOLDEN THRONE.—The golden throne to be used by Queen Victoria this month in one of the public ceremonies in London, is a costly trophy of high historic interest. It is the golden ruler of the Punjab, Runjit Singh, the famous "Lion of Lahore," and came into British possession on the conquest of the Punjab half a century since. The throne is in itself a beautiful object. It is octagonal in form, and rests on eight feet. In shape it resembles in some respects a font, with a shell back to the seat. From the arms two curious brackets project. The whole of the throne is covered with gold plates mounted on wood, chased and repousse ornamented in a bold floral and foliated style. The three cushions are of yellow and red velvet. The height of the throne is three feet one and a-quarter-inches, and it measures two feet five inches across. In the great hall of the Institute the golden throne stands on a dais with plumes of peacock feathers by

I was troubled with catarrh for seven years

I was troubled with catarrh for seven years previous to commencing the use of Ely's Cream Balm. It has done for me what other so-called cures have failed to do—cured me. The effect of the Balm seemed magical.—Clarence L. Huff, Biddeford, Me.

After trying many remedies for catarrh during past twelve years, I tried Ely's Cream Ealm with complete success. It is over one year since I stopped using it and have had no return of catarrh. I recommend it to all my friends.—Milton T. Palm, Reading. One Way to be Happy
